LEGAL

- Get your marriage certificate translated - by court sworn translators
- Optional: With certification
- Recognised by government agencies and authorities
- Standard and express delivery possible

Did you marry abroad and need to show proof of your marriage in another country or want to apply for a change of your citizenship? In all these and other cases you will need a marriage certificate in the local language.

lingoking offers you the certified translation of your marriage certificate into any language. Order your translation online in just a few clicks - it's easy and straightforward. A scan or photo of your marriage certificate is sufficient for the translation, we do not need the original. You will receive the finished translation by post within a few days. Pay conveniently by PayPal, instant bank transfer, credit card or on account.

Your translation will be carried out exclusively by capable and sworn translators. This ensures that your translation is recognised by all government agencies and authorities.

Do you need more information? On our advice page "Getting a marriage certificate translated" you can find out everything you need to know about translating a marriage certificate.
